Nothing to do with his Private Character.

The editor of the New Mexican says that neither he nor we have anything to do "with the private or clerical character of Mr. Gallegos." That may be true as to the editor of the New Mexican who has not the right to vote and consequently will have nothing to say at the ballot box about the election of Gallegos may have a good or bad character either and the editor to the New Mexican have nothing to do with it. He might be a wise thief or murderer, yet the editor would not have anything to do with his private character. He might be a gentleman possessed of all the virtues and addicted to none of the vices, yet the editor of the New Mexican would have nothing to do with his private character. An assertion of the kind could only come from a man whose moral sensibilities have become so blunted by contact with immorality that he is incapacitated from rightly performing the duties of a citizen in a republic where the officers of the government are elected by the people, or from one who is so ignorant as not to know that republics have flourished whilst their rulers were virtuous and have fallen when their rulers were corrupt.

For our part we have something to do with the private as well as the public character of the character who has managed to have himself placed before the people as a candidate for Congress. A bad man in private life cannot be a good man in public life. A man who has not a proper appreciation for a good private character will not have much concern for his public character, and in this respect Gallegos' character has run hand in hand and are a fair illustration of the proposition just announced. He had not respect enough for his private character to prevent him from plundering the Sandoval estate and he had not respect enough for his public character to prevent him from having a law passed by the Legislature last winter by which the plunder would be legalized. Although we exposed his dishonest purpose at the time, and published to the world the villainies that lay at the bottom of that infamous law yet he persisted in his designs and when he knew that the eyes of the whole Territory were upon him he accomplished the ruin of the estate, secured the money for his own pockets and is now in favor of abolishing the only court in which his misdeeds can be officially exposed and he made to disgorge the money which he plundered from the estate.

Have nothing to do with the private character of a man like this when he is a candidate for Congress? A brilliant idea indeed! If the voters should ignore all investigations of that character we would have a fine set of officers. But they do not ignore the investigation. Their own character is more or less affected by the character of their representatives. When a man is elected to Congress from New Mexico those who vote for him and elect him endorse his character, as well as public as private, and all the country look upon him as the representative man of the constituency that selects him. Now the question before the voters of this Territory is, are you prepared to endorse Gallegos' private character and his official misconduct. He appears before you upon this issue alone, because he has not seen proper to say to the public whether he claims their support upon any other grounds.

The question will be decided in September next in a manner that will convince the editor of the New Mexican that the rottenness of the private character and the infamy of the public character of the man whom he supports for Congress have been considered by the voters of the Territory and condemned in the most positive terms.

SERENADE.—On Sunday night, after the adjournment of the convention, a serenade was given by the citizens in honor of those of the nominees who were in the city. The music was furnished by the 5th Infantry Band, which was also in attendance at the convention during its session. Not having been in attendance at the serenade we will not attempt to give an accurate account of it from what we have heard, least we should fall too far from doing it justice. It was, however, one of the demonstrations of the times, which in the aggregate, go to show how the popular pulse beats, and who are in the confidence of the people in Santa Fe county in the pending political campaign.

The Convention.

The county convention at the Court House last Sunday was well attended by the young men of the county. The Court House was nearly filled and the finest spirit prevailed in the assembly. The proceedings which we publish to-day tell what was done and how well it was done. All the votes for candidates for nomination to the different offices were taken risa voce, and any person present could bring his friend before the convention and have his claims fairly and openly considered. This is in marked contrast with the manner in which the June-bag convention was managed in order to get the nomination of the concern conferred upon the little Padre. He was nominated by the managers and politicians, in opposition to the will of the people. Our candidates were nominated by a convention of the people, with which the caucuses of politicians had nothing to do. The consequence is that the Padre has no support outside of the direct influence of a portion of those who composed the convention which nominated him, and our candidates are the favorites of the masses.

After the nominations were made and the business of the convention concluded, Messrs. Quintana and Clever, two of the nominees for the House of Representatives, addressed the convention in eloquent speeches in which they set forth the prospects of the candidates of the party; the cause which should inspire the people with a determination to rebuke the Gallegos concern and consign Gallegos to the disgraced retirement to which his misdeeds, public and private, so richly entitled him. The speeches were received with great applause which showed where the hearts of the people were.

Before putting the question of adjournment, M. Ashurst Esq., President of the convention, delivered an address and in the most happy manner gave his reasons for declining the nomination for the House of Representatives which had been conferred upon him, and assured the convention that his labor in behalf of the ticket would be none the less zealous because his name was not upon it. The address, made in most excellent taste, and well pointed, made a fine impression upon his auditory and will carry its influence into the election.

The proceedings give a full account of the action of the convention.

The County Ticket.

We to-day place at the head of our columns the names of the candidates who were nominated last Sunday for the different county offices. The names of these gentlemen are familiar to the people of Santa Fe county and will command the support and confidence of a large majority of the voters.

Whilst there was competition for the nominations in the convention, the utmost good feeling prevailed throughout the session and the nominees gave entire satisfaction to those who participated in the proceedings, as well as to those of the party who did not, and it is now generally conceded to be the strongest ticket that could be placed in the field at this time. Among the candidates there is not a fey, nor is there one but who is of mature age and cultivated intellect which qualifies them for filling the various offices to which they will be elected, with honor to themselves and profit to the public.

With Col. Perea for Congress and these gentlemen for county officers we present a ticket that is in itself invincible in Santa Fe County. It naturally attracts to itself the support of the active and energetic workers of the City and county, because it combines the elements of popularity with those of usefulness.

We now assure our friends in the other counties of the Territory, with increased confidence, that Santa Fe county will give an overwhelming majority against Gallegos and his corruptors. The people of this county, where he lives and where he is best known, will in September, place an unmistakable seal of condemnation upon him that will forever mark him and cling to him. With an organization such as we have now perfected here; with the natural strength of the ticket which that organization supports and the inherent weakness of the ticket which it has to combat, it would be passing strange if the assertions here made should prove to be incorrect.

Declined.

Hon. J. M. Gallegos invited Francisco Perea, to visit the different counties of the Territory with him and to address the people, Francisco declined, New Mexican.

Col. Perea is not the only person who has declined to visit the different counties of the Territory with the little Padre. His friends even, will not visit with him. Last week he went from here to Rio Arriba by himself. There he invited Diego Archuleta to visit Mora with him but Archuleta declined. Whether he extended the invitation to others we do not know. But one thing is certain; he came back to Santa Fe, and is reported to have said that he could not get to Mora because the Indians were so annoying.

Why should Col. Perea visit with a man whose own friends are ashamed to visit with him? We have not heard that the Indians have interfered with Col. Perea's visit to the upper country. His friends there are so numerous that the Indians are afraid of them, we presume.

MAL. J. HOWE WATTS, Paymaster, returned to the City on Wednesday last after an absence of a few weeks, during which time he paid the troops at Albuquerque, Peralta and Fort Wing T. and the company of Capt. Gonzalez, (discharged N. M. Volunteers) over one hundred thousand dollars.

FROM THE STATES.—The papers from the States this week bring most important news in reference to the progress of the war.

On the 3rd inst. a most sanguinary battle was fought by the contending armies at Gettysburg Pa. The losses on both sides in killed, wounded and missing were heavier than those occasioned by any one day's battle since the war began. The fight terminated in favor of the government arms and against the enemy. At the latest dates Lee was attempting to get back to Virginia but a flood in the Potomac obstructed his retreat and the opinion prevailed that there would be another battle in Maryland before he could effect a crossing of the river.

On the 4th Vicksburg was surrendered by Genl. Pemberton to Genl. Grant together with 27,000 prisoners, 102 field pieces and 30 siege guns.—The prisoners were paroled.

All the articles in this issue of the Gazette in which reference to the New Mexican is made were prepared before we were advised that it had changed owners, and, of course, have nothing to do with that journal under the management which we are informed it will appear to-day. We wish it success under its new auspices and hope to have in it an efficient collaborer in the promotion of the interests of the Territory.

We welcome Mr. Clever to the editorial fraternity and wish that he may find his new position one of profit and pleasure.

Genl. Carleton went to Fort Union this early part of this week.

Major BYRNES paid the soldiers stationed at this Post, on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Capt. McFERRAN returned from Albuquerque on Wednesday.

Santa Fe County Convention.

The people of the County of Santa Fe met in mass meeting at the Court House in the city of Santa Fe at four o'clock, p. m. July 19, 1903 in accordance with the resolution adopted at the previous mass meeting held on the 12th instant, when

On motion of Jesus Maria Baca the Hon. Merrill Ashurst was called to the chair as President, and

On motion of Nicolas Quintana Messrs. Victor Garcia and Charles Blanner were elected Vice Presidents.

On motion of Charles P. Clever Messrs. Jesus Alard and David J. Miller were appointed Secretaries.

Mr. Clever, chairman of the committee appointed at the previous meeting to make arrangements for the meeting of this convention, &c. made the following report, which was adopted:—

The Committee of Arrangements beg leave to report, that they have made all preparations in their opinion necessary for the suitable accommodation of the members of this Convention. They have also through the kindness of Capt. H. R. Seldon and Lieut. Samuel Greenhouse been favored with the use of the Military Band.

Your committee recommends that in the selection of Candidates, every member of the Convention be allowed to propose a Candidate, that the vote be taken risa voce, and that the two third rule be adopted for a choice.

Mr. John T. Russell, chairman of the committee appointed to draft a set of resolutions to be submitted to this convention as a platform for the current political campaign, made the following report:

The committee appointed by the meeting held in the Court House in the City of Santa Fe, on the 12th day of July, to draft resolutions to be submitted to this convention, beg leave to report the following:

Resolved.—That the National Union Democracy of the County of Santa Fe, in the present condition of federal politics, deem it proper to renounce their faith in the fundamental principles of government announced by Jefferson, and matured during the time he was president of the United States. That the Monroe doctrine in reference to the political condition of this continent should be strictly adhered to, and it is the duty of the government of the United States to resist all attempts made by foreign European powers to interfere with or subvert established governments in any portion of America. That Abolitionists in the north and Fire Eaters in the South have been equally instrumental in bringing the present disasters upon the country, and in the opinion of this meeting will effect its entire ruin unless conservative counsels prevail, and the spirit of compromise, which marked the policy of the fathers of the Republic in its infancy, shall assume its proper position and dictate terms of reconciliation and re-union.

Resolved.—That the establishment of a State government for the Territory of New Mexico at this time would be unwise and impolitic—imposing burdens of taxation upon the people which they are ill prepared to bear and which would create discontent and complaints which should be avoided. That no attempt to force a State government upon an unwilling people should succeed, and we pledge the whole power of the party to which we belong, in opposition to any such attempt, not only to protect the people against the wrongs that it would entail upon them, but also to rebuke the pretensions demagogues who are endeavoring to elevate themselves to place and power at the expense of the people.

Resolved.—That the interests of the Territory demand a change in the Indian policy as now and heretofore maintained by the Secretary of the Interior. The adoption of the reservation system would relieve New Mexico from the sufferings which she endures from the marauding tribes which surround us, and would be beneficial to the Indians themselves in compelling them to adopt the habits of industry and the customs of civilization.

Resolved.—That we deprecate and denounce the effort that is being made to create jealousies and animosities among the citizens of the Territory by appeals to prejudice of race, and that we will do all in our power to cultivate harmony of feeling among all classes of citizens regardless of birth, or race and in our political action have wholly in view the property and welfare of all, without respect to birth-place.

Resolved.—That we hold the belief that the federal appointees to the civil offices of the Territory should be selected from citizens of New Mexico who understand the wants, interests and customs of the people.

Resolved.—That this convention approves the nomination of Col. Francisco Perea as a candidate for Delegate in Congress and that the National Union Democracy of Santa Fe County will give him their most cordial support at the ensuing September election.

Resolved.—That the energy and efficiency with which the Military Department of New Mexico has been administered by Brigadier General Cameros, and the officers under his command, meet with the hearty approbation of the people of the Territory and guarantee us in placing in them our most implicit confidence.

Which resolutions were read and adopted unanimously risa voce.

Nominations for candidates for the principal offices for the County of Santa Fe being now in order.

For Probate Judge C. P. Clever nominated Felipe Delgado.

There being no other nomination Mr. Delgado was declared the nominee of the convention.

For Sheriff John T. Russell nominated Andres Tapa.

J. M. SENA y Baca nominated Jesus Maria Baca y Salazar.

On motion of Nicolas Quintana a committee of three was appointed to invite Chief Justice Kirby Benedict within the bar of the convention.

The President appointed on the committee Messrs. Quintana, Jesus Chavez and Francisco Ortiz y Delgado the committee, who thereupon conducted Judge Benedict to a seat within the bar.

The vote being taken on the nomination for Senator and the name of Mr. Clever being withdrawn, Mr. Baca y Salazar was declared the nominee of the convention.

For Coroner Mr. Clever nominated Ramon SENA.

Jose Ortiz nominated Jesus Alard.

And the vote being taken Mr. SENA was declared the nominee of the convention.

Mr. Clever offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That a committee of nine be appointed by the chair to prepare and cause to be printed and circulated an address to the people of this Territory, manifesting in the name of this convention the reasons why we are opposed to the election of Mr. Jose Manuel Gallegos for Delegate to the Congress of the United States, and that said committee be also a committee of correspondence.

The President appointed on the committee the following gentlemen:

Messrs. C. P. Clever, Santiago Baca, David J. Miller, Felipe Delgado, James L. Johnson, Victor Garcia, Jose Ortiz, Francisco Ortiz y Delgado and Santiago Arrijo.

Mr. SENA y Baca offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we stand firmly by and use all honorable efforts to secure the election of the nominees of this convention, and that we will labor with might and main to accomplish the utter defeat of Padre Gallegos as Candidate for Delegate to Congress and for the election of Colonel Francisco Perea as Delegate to the American Congress from the Territory of New Mexico.

On motion of Mr. Quintana the proceedings of this convention were ordered to be furnished for publication in both languages to the editor of the Santa Fe Gazette and the Albuquerque Press.
